Ohio Writing Institute Summer 2009 Best Practices for Teaching Writing in Grades 4-12

Dates/ Times: August 3–7, 2009 (Monday through Friday)
August 10–12, 2009 (Monday through Wednesday)
9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
SSU's Massie Hall, Room 108

Credit Hours: 4 graduate qtr. hours from Ohio University

Contact Hours: 48

Enrollment: Limited to 20 teachers

Quarter/Year: Summer 2009 (Credit will be awarded at the end of OU's fall quarter.)

Prerequisites: Participants must be teachers in grades 4-12 in Ohio school districts. Preference is given to those teaching English Language Arts in middle and secondary schools.

Description: Wouldn't it be nice to know how your colleagues help their struggling writers, how they use technology in writing instruction, and how they address Ohio's English Language Arts Content Standards in their classrooms? As teachers, we know what strategies are effective, what projects will enable our students to thrive, and what differentiations offer meaningful learning experiences. This institute will provide participants the opportunity to share their best practices for teaching writing from the middle school level to the college level.
